

SAINT PETER'S NET

JESUS SAID TO PETER, "FOLLOW ME, AND I WILL MAKE YOU FISH FOR PEOPLE."
MATTHEW 4:19

From the Rector

Dear Members and Friends of St. Peter's,

The phrase, 'Time is of the essence' is used quite frequently in our everyday conversations; the unique and important role time plays in our lives. Time is cyclical in nature and linear in its movement forward. When we are healthy, we say, 'time is on our side' and, when we face a terminal illness or a dead line, we say, 'it is against us.' Time is the first thing God created, and He measured the creation using the measurement of time as day. These thoughts prompted me to ask, 'how are we living our time here on earth?' This question is especially significant since we truly don't know how much time we have left to live on this side of our lives. It makes me shudder on Ash Wednesday when, as a priest, I have to impose ashes on people's foreheads and say, "You are dust and to dust you shall return."

In a Wall Street Journal article titled: 'Science Increasingly Makes the Case for God', sent to me by Mike Logar, the author Eric Metaxas says: "The odds against life in the universe are simply astonishing. Yet here we are, not only existing, but talking about existing." If we are the only life form not only existing but also talking about existing in this vast universe of billions and billions stars and even larger number of planets, then the time we get to spend on our planet earth is so special and significant.

How do we treat this great gift of time we are endowed with? I invite all of us to join in a time of reflection over the course of Lent, guided by the Brothers of Saint John the Evangelist monastic community in Cambridge, Massachusetts. If you're interested, go to www.SSJE.org/time and subscribe with your e-mail. You will receive an introductory e-mail and videos will be sent to you directly. Following two paragraphs is a description of how we can engage in this interactive reflection.

So much of our stress and anxiety derives from our pollution of time. God has given us the gift of time, and called it holy, yet we often experience time as a curse. In a series of short, daily videos over five weeks, the Brothers of SSJE invite us to recapture time as a gift. Join the Brothers as we wrestle with questions of time and discover how to experience the joy of the present moment.

Each theme (It's Time to Stop, Pray, Work, Play and Love) is introduced with a video of a Brother priming us for the week's theme. The theme is explored in depth in six short reflection videos (around 2 minutes each). A compilation video is also available each Sunday. Each reflection video ends with a thought-provoking question for you to ponder over the course of the day, and then answer on the worksheet, which you can download for free.

As in the past, there will also be other avenues of reflection that you can enter into. There will be a weekly study on Forgiveness every Tuesday beginning Feb. 24 for five weeks. There will be community Lenten services every Wednesday during Lent, and then Stations of the Cross every Friday at 7 PM beginning on February 20.

I hope you will find these Lenten resources useful for you to weave together a more abundant and meaningful life.

Blessings, Koshy

Deacon's Roundtable

"When you pray, go into your inner room, close the door, and pray to your Father in secret. Your Father who sees in secret will repay you."

(Matthew 6:6)

It is my practice every morning to go to my special place, read the daily readings, meditate on those readings and open my heart to our Father in heaven. This sets my day off on the right foot.

I'd like to think of myself as a caterpillar humping along in life and then building myself a chrysalis to make changes in how I see that life. Now can you imagine a lowly worm turning into a beautiful butterfly? This is what happens inside the chrysalis of the monarch butterfly. Scientists don't know for sure how this transition takes place, but within a few weeks a caterpillar turns into a completely different creature. Inside the chrysalis the major organs and structures of the caterpillar are completely dissolved and new ones are formed. A new heart! New lungs! Wings grow out of nowhere!

What a wonderful way to describe what happens to believing people during the season of Lent. If we really work at it we can enter a chrysalis and emerge six weeks later as a reflection of God's beauty and grace.

It's not magic; it is a combination of God's grace and our effort. Of course we have no control over grace, but we do have a lot of control over our efforts. Here are a few things we can do to help us make that transition come Easter Sunday.

First, visualize prayerfully what we want to become. What "old organs" do we need to let go of? What kind of wings are we looking for?

Second, find a chrysalis. Don't do this by isolating yourself, but set aside a regular time each day to meditate on a scripture reading. Forward Day by Day or another daily devotional is a good start. Talk to the Lord, but also remember to listen. Use a journal to record your thoughts and what the Lord is trying to tell you.

Third, meditate on the Stations of the Cross. Follow our Blessed Lord on the way to crucifixion and death; for it is through this series of events that Jesus comes forth in new life as the risen Christ.

Finally, start living that new life. Rearrange your priorities as if you were already that beautiful butterfly. Make yourself available to God's grace through prayer and you will find yourself changing.

I wish you all a blessed and prayerful Lent.

In Christ's Love,

Deacon Joe

A Word From Deacon II

I was excited to see the movie Selma. In fact, Joni and I saw it the day it was released. If you are unaware, this is the story of Selma, Alabama in the spring of 1965. The Civil Rights act of 1964 was being ignored, as many continued to create roadblocks for voting registration for minorities.

After the March from Selma to Montgomery, the Voting Rights Act of 1965 was passed. All citizens were now cleared to register and vote without restriction. For old fogeys like myself that lived through this time, it became a point of celebration. It was a mark of equality and dignity. It was a result.

The movie was a fair representation of troubled times. It was emotionally presented, and one could not help but feel both shame and joy. Upon leaving the movie theater, I felt some pride on how far we have come. This pride was short lived, as I reflected on how far we truly have come, which isn't very far at all.

I praise the young generation of people that have seemingly left the black/white American issues behind. However, many people in our world continue to suffer and are treated unfairly, simply because we make decisions based on the beliefs and actions that not everyone should have what I have.

To me, that's it in a nutshell. We won't freely give away what we want for ourselves. If we did, education would be financially available to all. We would see to it that the other eight million people had clean water. Human trafficking would end in a moment, if we saw all children as equal to our own. If we all checked our closets, no one would be in need of a warm coat. We wouldn't be color-blind, but we could be color-indifferent.

Am I idealistic? Yep. But isn't it our ideals that lift us up? Isn't it the ideal of love without judgment that Jesus calls us to? To love unceasingly, including loving those that do not love us?

When I think about it now, I wonder why people at any time or place should have to risk their neck on a fifty-four mile march to get what others already have?

I write this on the birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr. By his own words, he was a dreamer. Maybe I have missed the point for too long. Perhaps I should be busy dreaming about the world that Jesus calls us to create for others. Can I dare to dream that His kingdom and His will might be one day be done "on earth as it is in heaven."

Yours in Christ the Servant,

Deacon Dennis

A Heartfelt Thank You

Dear People of St. Peter's Church,

As one who loves words, the apt phrase, the insightful idea, I am utterly at a loss to find adequate words and ways to say "thank you." I know this NET article will probably not reach everyone I want to thank. The inability to say thanks adequately, becomes another metaphor of how life works. Each of us is a recipient of so many gifts and graces from others daily that we tend to take them for granted. The fabric of our lives is knit together and sustained by the kindnesses, work and generosity of others that we often do not even glimpse. I am in that position as I attempt to say thank you to so many for so much!

Beyond the amazing swiftness of 50 years in priesthood is the absolutely amazing response of this parish to this event. I find it extremely difficult for me to understand the breadth and depth of the response that so many gave to this event.

The breadth of that response is seen in several ways. Many people from St. Peter's and former parishes came to worship on December 7, 2014, the day the parish focused on those 50 years. Many persons remarked about the display of pictures and memorabilia that portrayed and symbolized some of the important events of the ordination event and subsequent years. The breadth of response by parishes past and present was very affirming for me.

The depth of response by the parish and others was equally overwhelming! I was humbled and am very grateful for the monetary gift that I received during worship, from our Senior Warden, Retta Sparano. It continues to leave me and my family overwhelmed by this level of generosity shown to me as a retired priest. The warm comments of support for my homily, parish involvement and past work in the parish continue to feed my spirit and nourish me in deep ways.

The augmented coffee hour after church was simply splendid and beautifully presented. Such an occasion once again reveals the amazing core of dedicated, caring people who make up St. Peter's Church.

I sincerely hope you can look beyond these words and sense what my mind and heart are wanting to express to each of you who give so much of yourselves to others. You make "church" real for me and for so many others. God bless you as you are a blessing to others and to me.

With deep gratitude,

Fr. David

Stewardship

The current St. Peter's Stewardship Committee was formed in the summer of 2011, consisting of Iris Blanche, Susan Madden-Cox, Diane Hope, Erik Paulson, and Don Hans. During 2012, Erik Paulson was replaced by Eric Sharpe. Earlier in 2013, Dave Brennfleck joined our merry band, increasing membership to six, but shortly thereafter Susan left the committee. In January 2015, Iris will be retiring from the committee, and Sarah Williams will be joining. As Diane and Don approach their 5th year on the Committee, it is time to begin a further transition of new committee members to join the group.

Although some of the following information is dated, I believe it provides perspective of the Committee's activities during the balance of the year when we aren't conducting the in-gathering campaign. During our formation in 2011, we quickly agreed upon two items - first, that we would not elect a chairperson since we were all committed to meeting our assigned tasks (still working extremely well but sometimes under pressure to elect a chair), and secondly, once the in-gathering campaign was completed, we would focus on the Time and Talent components of Stewardship. We completed our adopted theme of Grace, Generosity, and Gratitude campaign in 2012. In 2013, Fr. Hyatt compiled a survey that accumulated the activities that parishioners are involved in, and we shared that information throughout the year. There still continues to be so much that goes on behind the scenes; like the daily luncheons during the week and now a Monday evening pantry.

Our primary objective in 2014 was to work with the New Member Ministry Committee to develop a communication piece to educate our newcomers on the importance of financial pledging to St. Peter's. This information has become a part of the package already provided to all new members. We will continue to find ways to educate all parishioners about the importance of pledging so St. Peter's can support all of its missions.

We had a successful 2015 In-Gathering campaign, with the number of pledges increasing by 4 to 70. Monies pledged increased by $12,678. Total pledges received in 2015 were $231,926 vs. $219,248 in 2013. Of the 70 pledges received for 2015, 22 remained the same, 11 decreased totaling $6,780, 23 increased totaling $10,044, and 13 new pledges totaled $20,540. The number of new pledges is certainly encouraging!

Respectfully submitted,
Iris Blanche, Sarah Williams, Diane Hope, Eric Sharpe, Dave Brennfleck, and Don Hans

St. Peter's Food Pantry

Deacon Joe Dietz

Thanks to all of you who have stepped up to volunteer to help as we have begun a successful Monday night extension of the Saturday pantry. The Phoenixville United Methodist Church serves a hot meal at 5:00 for those who wish to partake and then stay for the pantry which opens at 6:00. Some of the people come just for the meal, which may be the only hot meal they get that day. On our inauguration day on January 3 we had ten clients come to the pantry of which three were brand new. The second Monday pantry on January 19 saw twelve folks come which included three new clients. The other participants on both dates were people that usually came on Saturday but find it more convenient to come on Monday evening because of their work schedules or other circumstances that kept them away on Saturday.

A number of outside organizations have offered to conduct quarterly food drives for us which helps to keep the pantry updated with fresh items. We also have been purchasing fresh fruit and vegetables to have available for our clients so they can make more nutritious meals for themselves and their families. During the summer months most of these fresh fruits and vegetables are obtained from the Chester County Gleaning Program.

Thank you for your prayerful, financial and volunteer support as we strive to provide food for those who are experiencing hard times in their lives. Also, we offer a special thank you to all of you who have provided us with re-useable grocery bags for our clients to take their groceries home, and ask that you "keep them coming".

COME . . .

My friend, you'll find a welcome here.

So pause a while to meditate.

Here bring the burdens of your mind, with all the pains of your heart you bear.

Just bring them here, and take instead the Way of Christ:
the peace it brings,
the love it shares,
the service it inspires;
will be to you the Way, the Truth, and the Abundant Life.

Financial Update January through December 2014

from Frank Rothenberger, Treasurer

The financial position of St. Peter's for 2014 is outlined below.

- Income
 - St. Peter's received about $3K over the budgeted open plate donations of $20K. This help offset a $4K shortfall in pledges received.
 - Total operating income was $267K which is about $3K short of the budgeted operating income for 2014 primarily because of the shortfall in pledges received. Operating income excluded special donations of $12K and pass through income of $65K.
 - Total income was $344K in 2014.
- Expense
 - Total operating expenses were under budget by about $2K at $263K. Overall, expenses were sufficiently close to the budgeted amount for the full year.
 - Total expenses, including pass through expenses of $59K and $10K in special donations, were $332K for the year.
- St. Peter's had an operating surplus of $4K in 2014 and overall had a surplus of $13K, including pass through items, other income and special donations.

Despite the shortfall in pledges, St. Peter's collected sufficient donations to cover all of its operating expenses for the year because of expenses under budget for the year and open plate donations received in excess of the budget.

Additional detail on income and expenses is available upon request.

Account Balances (as of 12/31/14):

- Checking: $4,939
- Savings: $36,450
- Certificates of Deposit: $11,550
- Youth Group: $906
- Pantry/Outreach: $25,418
- Mission: $1,276
- Building Maintenance: $11,020
- Concert Series: $2,513

St. Peter's was able to end 2014 financially stable and we look forward to another good year in 2015.

Your generous support of St. Peter's mission work and operating expenses is appreciated.

Bryn enjoys playing with the kids her age at church on Sundays too. The Colemans live in Boyertown, Pa.

The Dollar a Day Campaign will happen again this year during the 50 days of Lent. This is a way of directing our spiritual energies during Lent, as we reflect every day on how millions of people around the world try to survive on just one dollar a day. Think of what impact giving up just that $1 would be; whether it means not buying that coffee or donut, etc. and instead giving that $1 for a meaningful cause. The Dollar a Day envelope will be available in the Narthex by February 22nd. Then the donations will be collected on April 12th, with proceeds defraying the travel costs to missionaries. Thank you in advance for your thoughtfulness and support of this effort!

If you are interested in participating in the 2015 mission or have any questions regarding the mission with Cristosal, please contact Cindy Hammaker at chammaker1@gmail.com. It is always wonderful to have several youth participate in this mission as the experience is especially impactful for them, the group for 2015 is forming now. Anyone interested in participating or supporting the mission is encouraged to attend the meetings. You can also learn more of our mission with Cristosal by going to www.Cristosal.org

El Salvador Mission

Cindy Hammaker

The Mission Committee continues to meet monthly with next meeting slated for February 12th at 7PM. The committee is focused on recruiting missionaries for the July 11-18th, 2015 mission with Cristosal's School of Global Engagement. The subject of focus this year will be on the immigration and human trafficking crisis.

Property Committee / Men's Group

The Property Committee is dedicated to maintaining the physical appearance and condition of the Church, to support the various missions of the Church, and to make us all feel good about calling St. Peter's Church our spiritual home. Our routine work includes cutting the grass and maintaining the general appearance of the church exterior during warmer months, and keeping the elements at bay both inside and outside the church as well as general upkeep and maintenance of the inside of the Church all year round.

Below is a list of the primary work activities that the Property Committee has recently completed:

- Coordination with Fr. Koshy and the various church outreach ministries on the use of Jim King to address the results of any snow or ice storms at the church. Gary Russell and I will be the primary contacts for Jim and so when you are at the church following a storm please let me know if the church has not been cleared. There are orange Homer buckets of calcium chloride (for new concrete) or rock salt (for old concrete) near the doorways for spot use on ice and snow by parishioners and outside ministries. Keep an eye out for slippery spots and make use of these materials as necessary.
- The heating system has been operating pretty well (knock on wood) with only a few glitches in steam getting to a few radiators (stuck air vents). These issues are being addressed as they arise and so please let me know if you arrive at the church and an area of the church does not have heat that should.
- Lastly, on Friday January 23 H&H Systems was at the church to provide annual re-certification of the church's 26 fire extinguishers.

The Property Committee continues to be interested in assisting our parishioners on small projects they either do not have the experience to do themselves or cannot afford to hire someone to do the work. Please contact Mark Hammaker (markhammaker@gmail.com) or Fr. Koshy if you have a project that you need assistance with.

The Men's Group portion of the group continues with beer brewing which is headed by our Brew Master Dave Brennfleck. Rumor has it that Dave has a new batch of beer in the works which I know those showing up at our meetings really enjoy taste testing when he is done.

The Property Committee meets the first Monday of each month – the next meeting being on Monday, February 2nd (2015) at 7PM at St. Peter's. Please feel free to join us, have a beer, and plan to talk property (mostly) issues. Thank you, Mark Hammaker (markhammaker1@gmail.com) / Ray Foerster (Foerster4@comcast.net).

2015 Vestry Candidates

Frank Rothenberger

I was born in Lancaster County and grew up in a small town, Lititz, Pennsylvania. I have an older brother and younger sister. My family attended Otterbein United Methodist Church in the city of Lancaster. After graduating from Warwick High School, I attended Ursinus College where I graduated with dual majors in Business & Economics and German. My education at Ursinus included studying abroad in Heidelberg, Germany for a semester.

My professional career started the summer of 2008 after college graduation. I was hired by CNA Insurance as a Commercial Property Claims Adjuster and worked out of the company's office in downtown Reading. After spending almost 4 years with CNA, I was hired by Phoenixville Federal Bank & Trust as a Junior Credit Analyst in May, 2012. I continue to work at the bank as a Senior Credit Underwriter which involves underwriting commercial loans.

My wife and I met at Ursinus College and have been married 4 years. We have a one-year old daughter Charlotte. We lived in Pottstown after college and moved to Phoenixville after we were married. We recently sold our first house in the borough of Phoenixville and are settling in at our new house in East Pikeland Township. We enjoy spending time with our 2 yellow Labrador Retrievers, Charlie and Hurley.

I assumed the role as Treasurer for St. Peter's in September 2014 and look forward to continued involvement in the parish as a vestry member.

Retta Sparano

The older I get, the faster time flies by. It seems like just yesterday I started a 3-year term on the vestry that will be finished at the annual meeting on February 8th. I have served as Accounting Warden for the full term, and this last year as Senior Warden, liaison to the Stewardship Committee, music program and chair the Worship Committee, as well as coordinating Sunday fellowship, and enjoy being a member of the choir. One of my goals has been to build a strong vestry that works well together, enjoys a collaborative relationship, and strives to continually work on the vision and mission of the parish.

For those of you who do not know me well, my working years have been in banking, medical and dental offices, and currently am office manager at Phoenix Mobile Homes, Inc. My history with St. Peter's goes back to 1950 when my family and I moved from Philadelphia to the rectory next door. My father, Philip Fifer, served as rector of St. Peter's from 1950 to 1974. Didn't I say time flies by fast?

St. Peter's is a thriving parish that is making a difference in the lives of so many of our neighbors in Phoenixville and surrounding communities, and across the border in El Salvador working with Cristosal. I am personally challenged and energized by serving my parish, and would like to continue as a vestry member.

Jan Wier

I came to St. Peter's in 1989 before our first child was born. Both of our sons, Matt and Ryan, were baptized here at St. Peter's. Over the years, I've worn many hats at St. Peter's. The first volunteer opportunity I became involved with was Sunday School teaching. I did that for about ten years, took a break, and now I'm back with our Godly Play program, and absolutely love it.

Other St. Peter's ministries I'm currently involved in are Worship Committee, Family Service Coordinator, Lector, and Meals for St. Mary's. Over the years I've served another term on vestry, was on a count team for ten or so years, Food Pantry volunteer, Stewardship Committee, and volunteered for various fund raisers.

Outside of St. Peter's, I work as an interior decorator for Calico in Strafford. I'm also an eleven year volunteer at the Chester County SPCA where I work with dogs that are up for adoption. My husband, Patrick, and I are fairly new empty nesters and live in Phoenixville, near Kimberton.

Courtenay Williams

My name is Courtenay Williams and I am from Bethlehem, PA. I was raised as a Baptist in Bethlehem, and I attended and was baptized at St. Paul's Baptist Church. I was raised by Elmer and Antonia Williams who have been married fifty one years. My father has been a trustee of St. Paul's for over thirty years. My mother has been a member of the Women's Group and the Flower Club for over thirty years as well. I am the third child of my four siblings. Darryl Williams (47) of Monterrey, CA, JanNean Williams (44) of Columbia, MD, and Simone Williams (35) of Bethlehem PA. My brother is a graduate of Carnegie-Mellon and is a retired Principal Engineer. My older sister works as an Animal Scientist at the Children's Hospital of Washington DC. My younger sister is Autistic and lives at home with my parents.

My youth consisted of sports and at that time an unknown warmth of family. I attended Bethlehem Catholic High School, in which I excelled in football, baseball, and tennis. During my time in Bethlehem I was involved with the Lehigh Valley Special Olympics. My sister Simone is heavily involved in Special Olympics which drew me to being a volunteer. When I graduated from HS in 1993, I accepted a football scholarship to West Chester University. While at West Chester I received a BS in Elementary Education while being a four year starter on the football team. After graduating college in 1998 I was a long term fourth and fifth grade substitute teacher at Hillindale Elementary school. While I was teaching I coached football at Unionville HS for two years.

During the IT boom of the early 2000s, I starting working in telecommunications for Fujitsu Inc. At Fujitsu, I was an IT Trainer and I taught a three week level one, two, and three telecommunications course. Understanding the times of change, I focused on getting into the the networking aspect of IT. I worked for Comcast for eleven years as Network Engineer which I really gained a vast knowledge base of Network Engineering. I left Comcast in 2011 for the opportunity to be the Sr. Network Engineer at Haverford College, which is where I am at this point in my life.

I met my wife, Sarah Williams, in 2002 and we were married in 2004 in Oak Bluffs, MA. We were blessed with our son, Deacon Shell Williams in June 2007 and with our daughter Madeleine Tilden Williams in June 2011. Our children are truly a blessing to me and having them instantly changed the way I looked at life. Currently I coach Deacon in football and I am in the process of spear heading a new youth football team called the Phuture Phantoms. I am the president of this new team in Phoenixville and I am so excited for what is to come in the future. My goal is to bring the community Phoenixville together through youth sports in a way they have not seen before. One of my passion is coaching and working with kids, I guess that is from the missing piece of my life from leaving the teaching field. Outside of coaching, I am an avid golfer, and I have been doing MMA training for the past four years.

I think I would be a good fit for the Vestry for multiple reasons. I love what St. Peter's has offered me and my family, and how you repay what someone has offered to you is the exact same way you pay that forward. Openness, dedication, hard work, honesty, and loyalty are the characteristics that I try to live my life after.

I look forward to having the opportunity of being part of the Vestry and also getting to know and work with the St. Peter's congregation.
