Principally Harps
Mindy Cutcher and Janet Witman

“Principally Harps!” blends the talents and experiences of two of America’s finest harpists in presentations of virtuosity, distinct style and impeccable ensemble. “Principally Harps!” offers audiences a unique opportunity to see and hear concert grand harps on center stage, as opposed to “hidden” among the instruments in an orchestra. Mindy Cutcher and Janet Witman are masters of their instruments, showcasing their harps with exciting repertoire and demonstrating the uniqueness of pedal harps with the varied sound effects that can be produced from them. Their programs are accessible to young and old; experienced and casual concert goers.

Trevor Gordon Hall

Trevor Gordon Hall sets himself apart by leaving no physical aspect of the guitar untouched and weaving together different textures into grand yet intimate and lyrical compositions. His blend of each sound doesn’t overcomplicate but focuses on utilizing the instrument’s fullest creative and compositional potential.

October 23, 2016 4:00pm Claude Bourbon

Ready for a unique and talented take on a wide range of musical traditions? Claude Bourbon is known throughout Europe and America for amazing guitar performances that take blues, Spanish, Middle Eastern, and Russian stylings into uncharted territories. Each year Bourbon plays more than 100 shows around the world. Now based in the UK, some of this guitarists' influences allow us a fascinating insight into this remarkable musician; Paco De Lucia; Deep Purple's Richie Blackmore; Joaquin Rodrigo; JJ Cale, Monty Python; JS Bach and Fleetwood Mac's Stevie Nicks.

December 4, 2016 4:00pm Advent Lessons and Carols

Each year the church reserves four weeks before Christmas in order to give us time to make the necessary preparations to prepare our hearts to receive Jesus once again at Christmas. We refer to these four weeks as the season of "Advent" which means "coming". During these weeks, we prepare ourselves, as a Church and as individual Christians for the coming of Jesus – the Jesus who came 2,000 years ago as a baby in a manger and Jesus who comes again this Christmas and once again enters our hearts. The Choir at St Peter's prepares for Christmas by singing the traditional service of Advent Lessons and Carols. This years' service will feature "O magnum mysterium" by Ivo Antognini and "No Sweeter Music" by John Rutter.
